The Case For Pillowcases

Event - My Sewing Room, a local quilting shop, is holding its first pillowcase making event next Monday, Jan. 18 at 1:30 p.m., as part of its commitment to the North America-wide One Million Pillowcase Challenge. Quilters -- or those keen to learn the craft -- need simply show up. There is no cost to attend, except participants' pillowcases must be donated to the campaign.

The One Million Pillowcase Challenge, sponsored by American Patchwork & Quilting magazine, is calling on quilters, crafters and sewers all over the continent to make a man's, woman's or child's pillowcase in 2010 to benefit a local charity.

All pillowcases created in Calgary should be dropped off at My Sewing Room (148 8228 Macleod Trail, 403-252-3711), which will donate them to local charities.
